

Winners and Losers

Lift to discover their fates

Sir Thomas Burgh of Gainsborough, Lincolnshire

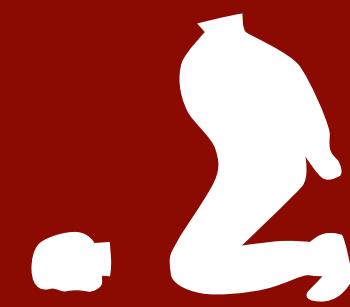

Pardoned by Henry VII. Became Knight of the Body & Privy Councillor to Henry VII and created 1st Lord Burgh, of Gainsborough in 1487.

Sir Rhys ap Thomas of Newton, Carmarthenshire

Awarded Crown lordship of Brecknock and made Chamberlain of Carmarthen and Cardigan.

William Catesby of Ashby St. Legers

Captured and executed in Leicester on 25th August 1485.

John Savage of Clifton, Cheshire

Received land confiscated from Lord Zouche and Lord Lovell. Made a Knight of the Garter in 1488 but was killed at the siege of Boulogne in 1492.

Sir Gilbert Talbot of Slottesden, Shropshire

Given the estates of executed Sir Humphrey Stafford in 1486, made keeper of Feckenham Forest in 1492, Knight of the Garter in 1495 and Lord Deputy of Calais in 1509.

Richard Ratcliffe of Derwentwater, Cumbria

Close personal friend and advisor of Richard III

Killed in Action.

John de Vere, Earl of Oxford

Created Captain of the Yeomen of the Guard and Lord Admiral, Chief Steward of the Southern Duchy of Lancaster, Constable of the Tower of London, Lord Great Chamberlain of England and Knight of the Garter. He won the battle of East Stoke for Henry in 1487 and defeated the Cornish rebels at Blackheath in 1497. He was also godfather to Prince Arthur.

Thomas Fitzalan KG, Lord Maltravers of Arundel, Sussex

Pardoned by Henry VII, he was godfather to Arthur, Prince of Wales in 1486. In 1489 he was appointed Warden of the New Forest. He was elected Lieutenant of the Order of the Garter, in 1489 and 1517.

Marmaduke Constable of Somersby, Lincolnshire

Pardoned by Henry VII, he became a knight of the body to the King by May 1486, sheriff of Yorkshire in 1488, fought in France in 1492, and at Flodden in 1513. He died in 1518, apparently having swallowed a frog...

Sir William Stanley of Holt, Denbighshire

Created Chamberlain of Henry VII's household, but executed for treason in 1495 as implicated in the Perkin Warbeck plot.

Francis, Lord Lovell of Minster Lovell, Oxfordshire

One of Richard III's key advisors and friends. He escaped and organised a series of Yorkist revolts. He later fled to Margaret of York in Flanders and joined the Lambert Simnel revolt. He escaped Stoke Field in 1487 and may have fled to Scotland, but his fate is a mystery.

Reginald Bray of Eaton Bray, Bedfordshire

He was created a Knight of the Bath at Henry's coronation, and later a Knight of the Garter. Made Treasurer and Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and Steward of the University of Oxford. He was also the architect of the Henry VII Lady Chapel in Westminster Abbey.

Sir Robert Willoughby of Bere Ferrers, Devon

Granted Receivership of the Duchy of Cornwall and appointed Steward of all mines in Devonshire and Cornwall. He commanded alongside Oxford against the 1497 Cornish Rebellion.

Robert Brackenbury of Denton, Durham

Constable of the Tower of London

Killed in Action.

Thomas Wood

A common soldier hence no coat of arms. Made a Yeoman Of The King's Bodyguard (along with 28 other ordinary soldiers) and Constable of Staines Bridge, Middlesex.

Henry Percy Earl of Northumberland

Captured and imprisoned for 6 months then released on promise of good behaviour, murdered by a Yorkshire mob in 1489.

